British Columbia's Yachters' Paradise

7 NIGHTS | ROUNDTRIP SEATTLE, WASHINGTON

UnCruise[®]
ADVENTURES

since 1996

TAKING A DEEP BREATH, I JUMPED AND PLUNGED INTO THE DARK, COOL WATER....

Mirroring the stars above, bioluminescence shimmers all around our treading arms and legs. The phosphorescence performs a glittery light show—a good distraction from the cold night swim at our secluded anchorage. Back on board, we laugh at our daring moxie, gratefully accepting towels and mugs of warming hot toddies.

DAY 1 Board the Safari Quest on Seattle's waterfront. Set sail at cocktail hour and, after dinner, nestle in to a remote anchorage for the evening.

DAYS 2-7 Land and sea explorations—wherever the tides take you! On the southern tip of British Columbia's Vancouver Island sits Victoria, your launch point for High Tea at the Empress Hotel. There will be time to browse the city's quaint shops or visit one of the garden city's many museums. Your voyage continues in the Strait of Georgia, sailing along Canada's Sunshine Coast to the Harmony Islands; along the passages of the Gulf Islands; and through the Malibu Rapids to Princess Louisa Inlet, walled in by 3,000-foot near vertical mountains. By day, anchor in sheltered bays for kayaking, exploring by skiff, or hiking ashore; and by night, settle into a remote anchorage.

Wildlife flourishes where evergreen forests fall steeply to the shore—orca search for salmon, seals and sea lions lounge on rocky islets, and eagles soar overhead. Once again, sail over the border into Washington's San Juan Islands—an archipelago of 172 islands and rocky islets. Spend your last day with a visit to tiny Friday Harbor and The Whale Museum, searching for orca, and "gunkholing;" or exploring as the land lubbers say. A festive Farewell Dinner and a picturesque recap of the week from your expedition leader cap off your last evening.

DAY 8 After breakfast with your travel mates, your journey ends with a morning transfer to the Seattle airport or your UnCruise hotel stay in Seattle.
